

Providing supportive counseling and training to the international Christian expatriate community, focusing on the ministry of Lee and Carolyn Baas

A missionary, (I will call him Will) called me about a week ago. This was the first time that we talked on the phone. Prior to this month he was at his ministry in Viet Nam and I had met him there. Because of Covid-19, he was unable to leave the town where he lived until this time.

After talking for a few minutes, I said, “Will, are you angry?” He said, Dr Lee, have you ever seen me angry?”

I replied that I had never seen him angry but now his voice sounded like that of an angry man. He said” I have often been angry, and I have been able to hide it from you, but my voice betrayed me. It was an eye opener for both of us.

Throughout these past months when I haven’t been able to travel but worked with missionaries using some electronic media, I really missed not meeting with them in person. Now I was able to find out more about someone just by listening to their voice.

Now that you have had to make schedule and lifestyle changes because of covid-19, What does your voice sound like?

The two things that have stolen all of the newspaper space and television time are the upcoming elections and covid-19. Along with the facts, comes the fake. Let’s not let the fake stuff destroy the real news that God has for us. His love is new every morning and His mercy never fails.

It is our prayer that we will be able to travel overseas again in the next few months. Join us in prayer for a miracle of deliverance from the virus and restoration of good will and peace throughout the world.

I am getting my left knee ready for a lot more traveling. Tomorrow morning, the Lord willing, Carolyn will take me to the hospital to have a knee replacement. Pray that all may go well.

May God bless each of you. In His love, , Lee and Carolyn
